Code of Conduct

The Queensland Curling Association requires certain standards of behaviour for all persons involved in our organisation and in our sport.

The key requirements of our codes of conduct are underpinned by the following core values:

- to act within the rules and spirit of our sport.
- to display respect and courtesy towards everyone involved in our sport and prevent discrimination and harassment.
- to prioritise the safety and well-being of children and young people involved in our sport.
- to report any behaviour which is in breach of this code to help prevent the abuse of children and young people in our sport.
- to encourage and support opportunities for participation in all aspects of our sport.

Privacy Statement

Collecting your information

The Queensland Curling Association holds your personal information in accordance with this privacy statement and we will:

- tell you when and for what purpose we will be collecting the information.
- not ask for or collect any sensitive information about you unless it is necessary to meet legal requirements.
- take all reasonable steps to permanently remove personal identification from the information collected about you if it is no longer needed.

Using your information

When you provide the Queensland Curling Association with your personal information we will:

- use the information to help you and the Queensland Curling Association in conducting operational activities.
- remove personally identifiable characteristics, unless you have given us specific consent to recognise your usage on an individual basis.

We will not disclose your personal information to any other person or organisation unless one of the following reasons apply:

- you have given us your consent to do so.
- the information is needed to conduct business between you and that person or organisation.
- we are required by law to do so.
- there are grounds to believe disclosure will prevent a threat to life or health.
- that person or organisation is providing a service to the Queensland Curling Association and is required to maintain the same or similar privacy legislation principles.

Security of your information

When handling your information, the Queensland Curling Association will:

- take reasonable steps to ensure that all information we collect, use or disclose is accurate, complete, up-to-date and securely stored.
- strive to protect your personal information from misuse, loss and unauthorised access; however, we cannot guarantee security.
